The Vagabond Blonde band has been playing together for over two and a half years in pubs, clubs and private parties in B.C. and Alberta, mostly in their home base of Calgary. Their music is an eclectic mix of rock, soul, roots and blues guaranteed to entertain and keep your toes tapping. Cate's dynamic vocals and the rest of the band's collective talent have evolved into a distinctive and memorable sound.

Vagabond Blonde released their first CD in the summer of 2007 and are planning a follow-up CD in spring of 2008.
